

Full-Time Clinical Track Faculty Position

The College of Behavioral and Health Sciences, School of Nursing invites applications for a full-time clinical track faculty position (#109030, #109040, and #109100) at the assistant/associate professor rank. Position requires clinical teaching of the baccalaureate nursing students. A master's degree in nursing is required by the appointment date. An active registered nursing License in the state of TN, CPR certification, and immunizations are required by date of appointment. All duties and requirements must adhere to university and clinical affiliate health standards. A minimum one year of clinical experience is required. The position begins August 1, 2024.

<https://careers.mtsu.edu/en-us/listing/>